

About Chickens

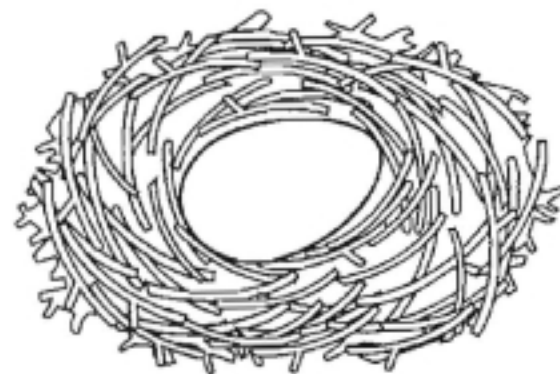

by: _____

Agritourism Educational Facility
1625 Bucksville Drive
Conway, SC 29527

www.thompsonfarmandnursery.com
email: thompsonfarm@sccoast.net
ph: (863) 236-1400 • fx: (843) 236-0166

Glue some straw down for the nest.

Hens lay about 280 eggs a year. Some eggs go to grocery stores and some become chicks. Chickens make nests out of straw or grass.

Agritourism Educational Facility
1625 Bucksville Drive
Conway, SC 29527

www.thompsonfarmandnursery.com
email: thompsonfarm@sccoast.net
ph: (863) 236-1400 • fx: (843) 236-0166

I am a _____

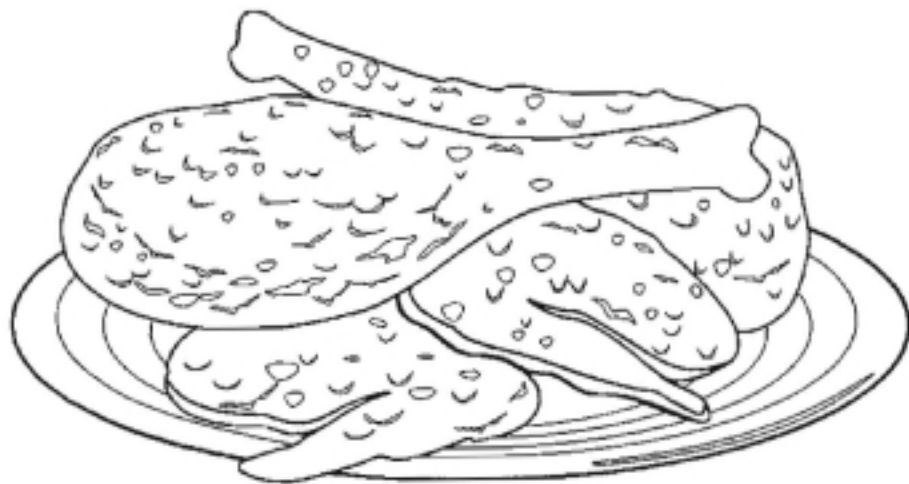

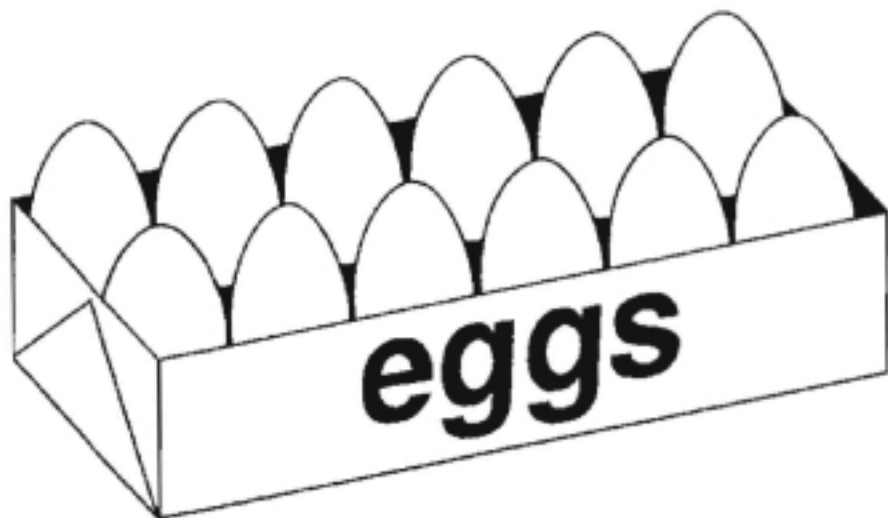

I am a _____

A female chicken is called a hen and a male chicken is called a rooster.

Agritourism Educational Facility
1625 Bucksville Drive
Conway, SC 29527

www.thompsonfarmandnursery.com
email: thompsonfarm@sccoast.net
ph: (863) 236-1400 • fx: (843) 236-0166

Chickens are useful. They produce eggs and can be used for meat. Their feathers are also used in animal feed (for protein) and as fertilizer for plants.

Agritourism Educational Facility
1625 Bucksville Drive
Conway, SC 29527

www.thompsonfarmandnursery.com
email: thompsonfarm@sccoast.net
ph: (863) 236-1400 • fx: (843) 236-0166